

I am against the FCC Broadband over Power Line (BPL), for Ham Radio interference in case of Emergencies should be open when needed. It also may leak important information on the lines that do not be broadcasted out. I feel it would cause more problems combined with other high power used.